Obituary

Kay Sharon Sain was born on December 19, 1948 in San Francisco, California to Lee and Otha Sain. She knew the Lord and accepted Christ at an early age. While growing up Kay was a member of the Macedonia Baptist Church in Richmond, CA. After relocating to the Sacramento area she joined St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church where she worshipped and served the Lord for many years.

Kay grew up in Richmond, CA and graduated from Harry Ells High School. She received her Masters of Arts degree in English as a Second Language, Bachelor of Science degree in Child Development and Welfare, and teaching credentials in Early Childhood Education, Elementary Education for Kindergarten through grade eight, Adult Education, and the Instructor Pupil Personnel Worker degree from the University of California, Davis.

Kay was a teacher in the Sacramento City Unified School District for 31 years. She provided students with rich and rewarding educational experiences. Her classroom was always an exciting and engaging place for students. In addition to working as a teacher in Sacramento, Kay also served many years as a Math, Engineering and Science Advisor (MESA), the director of the Project Pipeline Saturday Academy, a mentor teacher, staff developer, and the resource teacher for the Math and Science Academy during the summer at California State University, Sacramento.

Kay had a passion for teaching students and brought a wealth of expertise to her job. She was a recipient of many of the state's top teaching awards to include California Science Teacher of the Year, the MESA Mary Perry Smith award, Margaret Nicholson Distinguished Service Teacher of the Year, California Ag in the Classroom Graduate of the Year, Teacher of the year for Sacramento City Unified School District, the UC Davis Alumni Association Citation of Excellence, as well as many others. Kay was also selected to participate in several special trainings and institutes including Operation Chemistry at the University of Wisconsin and Purdue, Ag in the Classroom Summer Institute, the Forestry Institute in the Plumas National Forest, the NASA seminar in Norfolk, Virginia, and served as the keynote speaker at the national Ag in the Classroom Conference in Williamsburg, Virginia.

Kay was a very compassionate and courageous woman who always went out of her way to help others. She was the president and founder of the Carolyn Dudley Foundation, a nonprofit organization that provided support for breast cancer patients and survivors. She picked up food every month from the Sacramento Food Bank and delivered it to another organization that delivered the food to women with breast cancer so they would have nutritious food to eat. Her charitable work helped to make a positive difference in the lives of people all over the world. She donated educational materials, supplies, and funding to set up schools and a library in the Philippine Islands as well as in South Africa.

Kay traveled all over the world and made lifelong friends through her travels. When others speak about her they can't help but mention her brilliant smile and readily shared stories about how she had a special talent and gift for getting others to work on one or more of her many projects on behalf of children. She spread her special spirit all over the world. Kay was also a very accomplished jewelry designer and enjoyed sharing her craft with others.

Kay went home to be with the Lord on June 4, 2009. She truly touched many lives with her goodness and had a positive impact on the many people who were blessed to know her. Kay's mother, Otha Sain preceded her in death. She leaves many to cherish her memory, her father Lee Sain, three sisters, Trudy Lacy of Richmond, CA, Sandra Coulter of Richmond, CA, Linda Sain of Elk Grove, CA, two brothers, Richard Sain of West Covina, CA, Gerald Sain of Elk Grove, CA, one sister-in-law, Sinnia Marcos-Sain of West Covina, CA, three nieces, Jovita Sain of Fresno, CA, Shaneka Davis of Richmond, CA, Kurian Small of Fresno, CA three nephews, La Morris Francis of Richmond, CA, Eric Fox of Richmond, CA, and Harris Francis of Richmond, CA and a host of family and friends.

Kay will truly be missed by her family and friends.

Twenty Third Psalm

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Psalm 23

Assurance

*When life is bright and sunny or when the teardrops fall, there is one thing I am sure of; God is with us through it all.
He did not put us on this earth to walk life's path alone;
he sent his son to be our guide, the dearest friend I've known.
When our lives draw to a close, we will not go alone;
he who safely guided us here will safely lead us home.*

I will miss you dearly.

*Your loving sister (Aka mom),
Gwen*
